Technical Communication 1
ENGR 1181
Class 4 – Activity
Lab Report Sections

In which lab report section(s) would the following sentences best belong?

1. In future experiments, automated marker placement should be used to reduce the error.
2. The specimens dropped from 5.5 feet above ground.
3. The variability seen in the failure modes suggests that the samples contained different compositions.
4. The resulting fracture lengths are shown in Table 3.
5. Then, the following section contains the results of the optical testing.
6. The purpose of this experiment was to determine the sanitizer concentration needed to kill 99% of germs on a surface.
Answers

1. In future experiments, automated marker placement should be used to reduce the error.
2. The specimens dropped from 5.5 feet above ground.
3. The variability seen in the failure modes suggests that the samples contained different compositions.
4. The resulting fracture lengths are shown in Table 3.
5. Then, the following section contains the results of the optical testing.
6. The purpose of this experiment was to determine the sanitizer concentration needed to kill 99% of germs on a surface.